Minutes of the Last Meeting - A motion was made and passed to waive the reading of the Minutes of the Last Meeting.

Report of the President - Barbara Napoli

It's been a difficult year but recovery is still in progress and going well. Everyone is to remain vigilant and hopefully 2022 will be a better year.

- The 2022 Membership eBlast has gone out.
- There is no update on the audit but it is still in process and we should be hearing more in the next few weeks. We will keep you informed
- There may be a possible COVID-19 policy update pending the reports for Westchester County.

Report of the First Vice President - Kathy Gregory

Delegate Report - Legislation has passed requiring that warning labels are to be put on products containing Xylitol and Birch Sugar which is harmful to dogs.

A law was passed prohibiting insurance companies from denying insurance to homeowners due to the breed of dog they own.

Unfinished Business

PCOTC will be applying for a building permit for the placement of the sign on the outside of the building. No problems are anticipated.

New Business

Preparing for the 2021 and June 2020 Awards.

The Board wishes its members a Healthy and Happy New Year and we will continue to move ahead in 2022.

There being no further business, on motion duly made, the meeting was adjourned at 7:48 PM.

Barbara Napoli, President

Donna Fanok, Secretary
